

LOCAL MENTION.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.
Academy—Nellie McHenry in "M'Liss," 8 p.m.
Kernan's—"Trans-Atlantic Burlesques," 8:15 p.m.
Chevy Chase Lake—Concert by Marine Band and orchestra.
Olympic Theater—Chevy Chase Lake—Motion pictures.

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Steamer Macalester for Marshall Hall at 10 a.m., 2:30 and 6:30 p.m.; Indian Head at 6:30 a.m., 2:15 and 6:45 p.m.
Steamer Pentz for River View at 10 a.m., 2:15 and 6:45 p.m.
Steamers Arrowsmith and Harry Randall for Colonial Beach at 5:45 p.m.
Steamer Macalester for Mount Vernon at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.
Norfolk and Washington steamer for Fort Monroe and Norfolk at 6:30 p.m.
Randall line for Colonial Beach, Nomini and intermediate landings at 7 a.m.
Steamer Estelle Randall for Glymont and intermediate landings at 9 a.m.
Wentz line for Baltimore and river landings at 4 p.m.
Trains leave District line station for Chesapeake Bay at 9:25 and 11 a.m., 2:30, 5:25, 7:45 and 9:45 p.m.

Perfection is Exemplified.
In every quality of "Old Glory" Beer. Absolutely pure, fully aged, exceptionally fine in flavor. An ideal table beverage. For case phone W. 406. "Abner" Trusty Brewing Co.

Delicious Meats for Sunday Dinner.
Meats above all else should be selected with discrimination. Only the choicest Washington-dressed meats, beef, broths, soups, etc., are found at the stalls of T. T. KEANE CO., 24-51 Center mkt., 9 Wholesale Row. Lowest consistent prices. Special display Saturday. Inspection invited.

While at work in the stable at the National Capital Brewery yesterday afternoon August Schlegel, twenty-seven years of age, was kicked by a horse and injured about the head. He was taken to Providence Hospital, where his injury was dressed.

Royal Glue.
Mends everything. Druggists', 10c.

Great Bear Pure Spring Water.
4 gallons for 50c. Office: 704 11th.

The Best is the Cheapest.
Chicago-Jewel Gas Ranges, six keys, top, cake griddle, large ovens, etc., connected and guaranteed, $19.50.
616 12th. C. A. Muddiman & Co., 1204 G.

Take a Box of Ashburn Peach Ice.
Cream home with you. 1333 14th st.

Sydenham B. Dietz, thirty-three years old, was treated at the Emergency Hospital yesterday afternoon for injuries to his head and body, received, he said, by being knocked off a street car. Mr. Dietz was riding on the running board of the car and as the vehicle turned the corner of 6th and B streets he was struck by a wagon and thrown to the ground. His home is at 1118 5th street northwest.

Gitchee Crystal Spring Water.
Is delivered fresh from the spring every day. 5c. per gallon. 1720 Fla. ave. n.e.

$8.00 Cast Iron Gas Range, Three burners on top, one under oven, and separate broiler. $8.00.
A. Eberly's Sons, 718 7th n.w.

Alterations and Repairs. C. D. Collins, Carpenter and Builder, 719 18th n.w. Phone.

Buy Reisinger's Ice Cream and You'll never want any other. A trial is all we ask. 1 gal. 50c. 1/2 gal. 25c. G. St. Phone E. 882.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

Changes in Buoyage.
The following changes in buoyage in locations constantly visited by vessels from this city are reported by the lighthouse authorities and are of interest:

Smith creek, Norfolk harbor, Va.—Smith creek buoy, spar, black and white perpendicular stripes, which was found out of position, was replaced August 18.
Western branch, Elizabeth river, Va.—Leverett Point buoy No. 4, spar, red, which was found out of position, was replaced August 18.
James river, Va.—Newport News harbor buoy, spar, red and black horizontal stripes, which was found broken off, was changed August 18.

Moses' August Floor Covering Sale.
Carpets, Rugs, Mattings, Linoleums and Oriental Rugs in a clearance sale. 11 & P.—Advertisement.

Stone for Highway Bridge Piers.
The stone for the piers of the new highway bridge over the Potomac, a short distance above the new railway bridge, is being received by the contractors in large quantities. The big and white granite, with over a thousand tons of stone aboard for the bridge, was brought up the river yesterday morning by the tug M. Mitchell Davis, and is lying in the cradle, unloading her cargo. The stone comes from quarries on the Maine coast, and is cut in shape and size to suit the bridge. The past month three big vessels have brought stone from Maine to this city for the bridge.

Printing That Brings Best Results
is cheapest in the end. Next time consult Byron S. Adams, Printer, 512 11th.—Advt.

Five Dollars or Fifteen Days.
Wearing the uniform of a private in the Marine Corps, Jacob Rushman was arraigned in the District branch of the Police Court this morning on a charge of causing a disturbance on 11th street southeast last night.

"He was drunk and refused to take my advice to return to the barracks, so I had to lock him up," was what Policeman Rickert told Judge O'Neal.

"I just got out of the lockup yesterday morning," Rushman explained, "but indeed I wasn't drunk."
"Had you been drinking?" his honor wanted to know.

"I had three or four drinks during the night," the marine answered.

"Why didn't you stop when the policeman told you to?" Prosecutor Pugh asked Rushman.

"I'm not sure, but I don't think he told me to."

"No, I don't guess you do remember," Judge O'Neal commented. "What was what the court had to say."

$6.00 Seashore Excursions. $6.00
Pennsylvania railroad. Tickets sold Friday and Saturday to Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City, good until the following Tuesday, inclusive, at $6.00 for the round trip. The Atlantic City, Camden, coaches and parlor cars, leaves Washington at 1:15 p.m. Through without change.—Advt.

Pays a Fine of $5.
A charge of violating the speed law was filed against William Barnes, an undertaker, in Judge O'Neal's branch of the Police Court today. From Policeman Hughlett the court learned that Barnes was operating his "buzz car" at a speed of fifteen miles an hour on Pennsylvania avenue yesterday. Barnes admitted his guilt and explained that he was hurrying to his destination because one of the tires on the machine was defective and would not hold air very long. A fine of $5, which the court imposed, was paid.

All About Summer Resorts.
Vacation days should be planned for well in advance. Booklets about summer resort possibilities for pleasant vacations may be had at The Star's Resort Bureau. Full information about resorts and routes for summer travel freely given at the business office.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES.

Corporation Counsel Asks for Increase in Salaries of Assistants.
The corporation counsel's office sent to the Commissioners its estimate for the expenses of this branch of the District government for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1905. The principal recommendation is that the salary of A. Leftwich Sinclair, second assistant corporation counsel, be increased from the $1,000 of last year to $2,000.

In recommending this increase the following statement is presented:

"The increase indicated in the salary of this assistant should be made for the reason that the present salary is not at all commensurate with the important and exacting duties of the office. The second assistant has charge of all proceedings for the condemnation of land for streets, alleys, water mains, sewers and other municipal purposes; he has considerable to do with matters relating to taxation, and renders valuable assistance in the preparation of opinions, briefs, etc., and also acts as chairman of the board of appeals. He was appointed chairman of this board January 4, 1904, and the Commissioners, upon the recommendation of the board of appeals, increased the sum of $200 annually as compensation for the additional work thus imposed upon the second assistant corporation counsel."

An increase to $1,500 from $1,200 is recommended in the case of the salary of Francis H. Stephens, third assistant corporation counsel. An increase in salary for the messenger of the office is added to the estimate, and it is suggested that the title "messenger" be changed to "clerk" to better conform to the duties performed.

In submitting the estimate Corporation Counsel A. R. Myers says:

"The volume of work of this office shows a considerable increase over last year. During the past year the work of the office has been greatly systematized. The work of the office is not in arrears."

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.
What a Policeman Told Green B. Baum Today.

"The rules are against walking on the grass," said Policeman Hopkins, who told the White House squad to a fine-looking old man who was passing through the north grounds of the executive mansion today.

"I just stepped off the walk a minute to look at something in the grounds," said the man, "but I don't see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

WORKS FOR TEMPERANCE.

Influence of Women in the Cause of Temperance.
Onward Tent No. 1021, female, held its eighth annual convention at the Reheba Temple, 643 Louisiana avenue northwest, and initiated four candidates under the supervision of the following officers: Miss Reta Atkinson, chief ruler; Mrs. Lola V. Marks, deputy ruler; Miss Amy Bickerton, past chief ruler; Mrs. Mary A. Hessler, shepherdess; Wright, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, as levites.

Under good of the order, Mrs. Lola V. Marks conducted the following: Recitation by Miss Mary Ford, entitled, "When I Was a Boy"; Irish selections, recitations and song, by Charles Foreman.

Deputy High Chief Moore complimented the tent upon the great revival in the tent, the condemnation of land for streets, alleys, water mains, sewers and other municipal purposes; he has considerable to do with matters relating to taxation, and renders valuable assistance in the preparation of opinions, briefs, etc., and also acts as chairman of the board of appeals. He was appointed chairman of this board January 4, 1904, and the Commissioners, upon the recommendation of the board of appeals, increased the sum of $200 annually as compensation for the additional work thus imposed upon the second assistant corporation counsel."

An increase to $1,500 from $1,200 is recommended in the case of the salary of Francis H. Stephens, third assistant corporation counsel. An increase in salary for the messenger of the office is added to the estimate, and it is suggested that the title "messenger" be changed to "clerk" to better conform to the duties performed.

In submitting the estimate Corporation Counsel A. R. Myers says:

"The volume of work of this office shows a considerable increase over last year. During the past year the work of the office has been greatly systematized. The work of the office is not in arrears."

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.
What a Policeman Told Green B. Baum Today.

"The rules are against walking on the grass," said Policeman Hopkins, who told the White House squad to a fine-looking old man who was passing through the north grounds of the executive mansion today.

"I just stepped off the walk a minute to look at something in the grounds," said the man, "but I don't see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

"You would probably object if some one walked on the grass in your private grounds," said Mr. Hopkins, to which the man was told that he was in error.

The man was Green B. Baum, former commissioner of pensions under President Harrison, who was walking through the White House grounds on his way downtown. He is well along in years now, and not so many years ago he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the White House. Of course, Officer Hopkins didn't know who he was.

Visitors passing through the White House grounds very often step out of the walks to look at the grounds, and do not see that any harm has been done. In Chicago there would not be objection to so slight a thing as this."

TOURNAMENT AT RIVER VIEW.

Honors Carried Off by Maryland Knights—Prize Winners.
Nearly 4,000 people witnessed the eighth annual tournament at River View Wednesday afternoon. They came in carriages and wagons from all parts of the country around. There were fourteen entries, and the contests were sharp, lasting for about two hours. The honors were carried off by Maryland riders.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The young women were crowned at 8 o'clock on the band stand in the pavilion. The honors were carried off by Maryland riders.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison, Knight of Washington, fourth prize, $10, Knight of Knight of Accokeek, fifth prize, $5. There were crowns or honors awarded with the four prizes, and in the evening the coronation ceremony took place in the dancing pavilion.

The young women in the contest were H. E. Keller, L. D. Love, J. S. Blandford, W. L. Craik, A. Cleveland, J. E. Gates, Luther Cleveland and William Bryan. Of the men, S. S. Hessler and John Hodgkins, Blandford rode as Marylanders, and thus gave that state three out of the five prizes with one exception.

The prize winners, their titles, and the awards were as follows: First prize, $25, Knight of Mount Vernon, first prize, $25, George Head, Knight of Bailey's Cross Roads, second prize, $20, T. S. Blandford, Knight of St. Joseph's Ward, third prize, $15, William L. Harrison